Registration Deadline: 2017/7/31

The annual Atomic, Molecular and Optical (AMO) Physics Summer School will be held at Institute of Atomic and Molecular Sciences, Academia Sinica located inside NTU campus, Taipei between 8/22 ~ 8/25. We invite domestic and international researchers to give lectures on related topics. Topics include: light-atom interaction, quantum information science, physics at intense laser field, bio-physics, atmospheric molecule detection and reaction, quantum gases and many-body physics, gravitational-wave observatory and precision spectroscopy, etc. This is a great opportunity for graduate students to learn more about these fields and for researchers to exchange their research experiences.

Lecturers :

Eric Akkerman (Technion, Israel)
Stefan Kirchner (Zhejiang University, China)
Prof. Hsi-Sheng Goan 管希聖 (NTU)
